

Northeastern Anesthesia Physicians

is located in a small city, but within easy and quick access to big cities such as NYC, the Pocono Mountains and Philadelphia. This family-friendly area offers many dining and shopping options.

Downtown Allentown is home to the PPL Center, which hosts high quality concerts, as well serving homebase to the Lehigh Valley Phantoms, the primary development hockey team of the Philadelphia Flyers. Take a short drive over the bridge to the Coca-Cola Park to catch a Lehigh Valley IronPigs game, the primary development baseball team of the Philadelphia Phillies.

You can find rich culture in downtown Bethlehem, the site for the internationally known music festival, known as Musikfest. Easton has many new dining options, as well as being the birthplace of Crayola – offering a Crayola Experience full of kid-friendly activities for your family.

“The Practice has a “tight family” feeling where each of us work together to support each other. You are not just a number when compared to big City Practices. The goal is for each of us to succeed in what we do.”

– quoted from a Staff Anesthesiologist.
